

(Garuda Sign)

Regulation of Department Of Trade Registration

With the issuance, of the identification card of inspector weights and measurement

B.E. 2543

-----

Apparently the identification card of inspector weights and measurement according for the Measurement Act B.E. 2542 (1999) is very orderly. The Director-General of the Department of Trade Registration issues the regulation as follows.

Clause 1 This regulation is called the “Regulation of Department Of Trade Registration With the issuance, of the identification card of inspector weights and measurement B.E. 2543

Clause 2 This Regulation shall come into force as of 25 July B.E. 2543 (2000)

Clause 3 For those who have been appointed as inspectors weights and measurement according for the Weights and Measures Act B.E. 2542 (1999), application shall be made the Central Bureau of Weights and Measures or Branch offices Weights and Measures as the case may be.

Filing a request to the identification card of inspector weights and measurement. The branch offices weights and measure will send a request for the identification card to the Central Bureau of weights and measures in order to carry out the identification card forward.

Filing a request to the identification card of inspector weights and measurement shall be made using the form with identification of government official card mutatis mutandis.

Clause 4 To the Secretariat of the Department is responsible for issuing the card and make a registration the identification card of inspector weights and measurement.

Clause 5 The identification card of inspector weights and measurement for age of 6 years from the issuing date.

Clause 6 In the case a person receive the identification card appointed to the another position. It is not the position that the minister appoints as the inspector weights and measurement return the identification card of inspector weights and measurement to the Central Bureau of Weights or branch offices, as the case may be.

The return of identification card of inspector weights and measurement of the branch offices weights and measures it have carry out the return of the identification card to the Central Bureau of Weights

Clause 7 In the case identification card of inspector weights and measurement is expire. The cardholder must apply for a new identification card within 30 days before the expiration date.

In the case identification card of inspector weights and measurement is lost destroyed or damaged. The cardholder must apply for a new identification card within 30 days of the date of identification card is lost destroyed or damaged.

In the case the cardholder of the identification card change name or surname or first and last name. the cardholder must apply for new identification card within 30 days from the date of approval for change.

Clause 8 The Secretary of the Department of Trade registration is responsible for keeping this regulation.

Given on the 25th Day of July B.E. 2543

Signature

(Miss. Patra Sakulthai)

Director General

of the Department of Trade Registration