

-Official Emblem-
Rice Trading Permit
In Type of International Rice Export
 (Ordinary Exporter)

No.: Office:
 District:
 Province:

The competent officer under the Rice Trading Act, B.E. 2489 (A.D. 1946) hereby grants permission to whose commercial name is located at No.: Village No.: Road: Sub-district:
 District: Province:
 to be a rice trading operator in type of International Rice Export, subject to the conditions stipulated herein by the Committee, as from

This permit is valid until

Issued on

.....
 Competent Officer

Renewal Particulars

| No. | Date | Reason | Authorized Signatory |
|-----|------|--------|----------------------|
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |

Conditions stipulated by the Committee

- Permit recipient is required to comply with the following terms:
- (1) No less than five hundred metric tons of rice under proprietary rights for persons with registered capital not exceeding twenty million baht and at least one thousand metric tons for persons with registered capital exceeding twenty million baht within a period of fifteen days from the date of issuance of the rice trading permit and for the entire age of the rice trading permit.
 - (2) Store rice in the rice storage facilities pursuant to submitted evidence.
 - (3) Report changes, increases and reductions in the number of rice storage facilities in writing to the competent officer within fifteen days from the date of change, increase, reduction of the number of rice storage facilities.
 4. Use rice weighing and humidity measurement instruments that are certified by the Department of Internal Trade in compliance with the laws governing measurement units. Do not use or have for use weighing or measurement machines with precision settings that exceed the specified allowance rate and do not take any action to cause certified weighing or measurement instruments to display weights or quantities that deviate from specified precision inspection and allowance scales.
 - (5) Make purchases and sales in the metric unit of measurements and do not take advantages in purchase-sales, weighing, payments and deductions apart from purchases and sales.

See instructions overleaf

Instructions

1. The rice trading permit must be displayed at a noticeable location that can be conveniently examined at the trading venue. A violator shall be subject to a penalty fine of no more than one thousand baht or imprisonment by no more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment.
2. The permit recipient must follow all of the statements and conditions specified in the permit. A violator shall be subject to a penalty fine of no more than five thousand baht or imprisonment by no more than five years, or both fine and imprisonment, and the revocation of the permit.
3. As the permit approaches its date of expiration, the permit recipient wishing to continue rice trading business is required to submit an application for a renewal of the permit prior to its expiration, accompanied by this permit.
4. This permit is exclusive to each respective individual and cannot be transferred. In addition, upon discontinuation of rice trading business, the recipient is required to notify the Committee or competent officer (and return the permit to the competent officer). A violator shall be subject to a fine penalty of no more than one thousand baht or imprisonment by no more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment.